Chapter 1

Introduction

1-1. Purpose

Purpose: The Army JROTC program is accredited by AdvancEd as a Special Purpose Program and as such is committed to continuous improvement. AdvanceEd requires that the Army JROTC program meet five standards of quality.

The purpose of the school visits is to gather information and evidence to support the continuous improvement of teaching and learning in the JROTC program. Staff members from the Brigade use the framework of the JROTC Program for Accreditation (CCR 145-8-3) to guide their observations, evidence collection, analysis, action planning and reporting.

1-2. DAI Evaluation Criteria

The DAI Evaluation Criteria will be used to assess the DAI Offices and assigned personnel, as defined by public laws, contracts, Army Regulations, and USACC policies, comply with minimum program criteria.

- a. Brigades will conduct a formal evaluation of DAI offices every three years. An Assist Visit may be conducted when no formal evaluation is scheduled. The brigade will notify the district superintendent and all JROTC personnel related to the host institution, if applicable, in writing, of the scheduled evaluation.
- b. Brigade evaluation team will use the DAI Evaluation Criteria to record comments and score evaluated areas during the accreditation.
- c. DAI Offices will be evaluated in the following areas:
  1. Personnel and administration
  2. Education and training
  3. Operations
  4. School logistics and supply
- d. DAI Evaluation Awards:
  1. Gold Level Support (100- 95 points).
  2. Silver Level Support (94-85 points).
  3. Bronze Level School Support (84-80 points).
  4. Unsatisfactory (79.9 points and below).

- e. If the minimum passing score is not attained, the DAI office will be placed in a probationary status and a follow-up evaluation must be conducted within 12 months. If the DAI office does not attain a minimum score within 12 months from the follow-up evaluation, the DAI and staff may be decertified.
- f. Using the DAI evaluation criteria in Appendix A, brigades will determine the award based on the score the DAI Office receives. Brigades will present awards to DAI Offices that perform above unsatisfactory.

1-3. JROTC Program for Accreditation (JPA)

The JROTC Program for Accreditation (JPA) will be used to evaluate Secondary Educational Institutions and JROTC Instructors, as defined by public laws, contracts, Army Regulations, and USACC policies to ensure compliance with minimum program criteria. School districts and instructors will receive a JPA visit at least once every three years. Conduct inspections no later than 1 May. An Assist Visit occurs when no JPA is scheduled, or as needed.

- a. Notification. Brigades will appoint trained JROTC personnel to conduct a JPA and Assist Visits. Brigades will notify units, superintendents, and principals in writing at least 30 days prior to a JPA. Cadets are to wear uniforms in accordance with AR 670-1. This notification process does not preclude spot-checks or unscheduled visits to the JROTC unit.
- b. JPA criteria. Brigade personnel will use the following documents:
  - 1. Staff Battalion Continuous Improvement Briefing
  - 2. Service Learning Briefing
  - 3. Cadet Portfolio and Interview
  - 4. Instructor Portfolio and Interview
  - 5. Unit Report
  - 6. In-Ranks
  - 7. Color Guard
  - 8. Cadet Drill
  - 9. Cadet Staff Interviews
  - 10. JROTC Program for Accreditation School Visit Point Summary
  - 11. JROTC Program for Accreditation Report
- c. JPA Report Submission and Retention. The JPA report consists of two parts, the JPA School Visit Point Summary Worksheet and the JPA Report itself. Units will receive an out brief on the JPA School Visit Point Summary Worksheet immediately following the JPA visit. The Brigades will submit the JPA Report to the school, instructors, and Cadet Command/JROTC no later than 14 calendar days after the TDY in which the JPA is conducted. Brigades should retain a copy of the JPA Report and the JPA School Visit Point Summary Worksheet until the school's next accreditation visit.

- d. Units will maintain their current Unit award status until they receive their next JPA. The Instructor Portfolio accounts for a large percentage of the overall accreditation score. All instructor portfolios are reviewed and extremely low portfolio scores can negatively affect a unit.
- e. Newly established units will not receive a formal JPA until being operational for at least three years. Assist Visits may be conducted by brigade personnel at any time.

Schools may receive the following designations:

SCORE	JPA CYCLE &amp; UNIT DESIGNATION
100 – 95 percent	JROTC Program of Excellence (JPE) – JPA visit within 3 years
94 – 70 percent	Satisfactory – JPA visit within 3 years
Below 70 percent	Unsatisfactory – JPA visit within 1 year and Performance Improvement Plan required
	*Assist Visits determined by brigade leadership

Table 1-1. JPA Cycle and Unit Designations

- f. Probation.
  - 1. If the unit receives an unsatisfactory on a JPA, the school will be placed in a probationary status and a follow-up JPA must be conducted within a year. The brigade will notify the superintendent, principal, and instructors in writing of the rescheduled JPA. If the school does not attain a satisfactory or above within 12 months from the unsatisfactory JPA, the instructors may be decertified. If the school does not attain a satisfactory or above within 36 months from the unsatisfactory JPA, the program may be disestablished. Schools that are on probation are ineligible for the JROTC Program of Excellence (JPE) designation.
  - 2. If the instructor portfolio receives a score below the minimum, the instructor will be placed on a Performance Improvement Plan (PIP). If the portfolio belongs to an Army Instructor (AI), the Senior Army Instructor (SAI) will initiate the PIP. If the portfolio belongs to a SAI, the Brigade Chief or designated representative will initiate the PIP. Brigade personnel will return for an Assist Visit within 12 months to review the instructor's progress on the PIP. If no improvement is shown, the instructor may be placed on probation. Units that have an instructor on probation are ineligible for the JPE designation.

- g. Awards for Excellence. USACC HQ or Brigade Commanders may provide other awards or designations for units using the results of this evaluation program.

1-4. Assist Visits.

An Assist Visit is not a JPA visit. It is designed to provide assistance in any specific area deemed necessary by the brigade. The brigade will coordinate in advance on what the JROTC unit will need.

Note: Brigades may request a DAI or SAI from another school district to conduct an Assist Visit. In accordance with the Commanding General's guidance, SROTC personnel may participate in Assist Visits and the JPA.

Appendix A. DAI Evaluation

1. The DAI is responsible for overseeing the operations of five or more Army units in the same school district. Each office will be evaluated in matters pertaining to personnel and administration, education and training, operations, and school logistics and supply.
2. Minimum Passing Score – 80 points. If the minimum passing score is not attained either in total or in any individual area, the DAI will be placed on a PIP and follow-up evaluations will be conducted within 12 months of the initial evaluation. DAI's placed on a PIP are not eligible for a DAI award.

JPA School Visit

The JPA School Visit is designed to assess the unit primarily in the areas of teaching and learning. This visit is comprised of accreditation criteria that include Cadet participation and the assessment of the instructor portfolio. The instructor portfolio is designed to show evidence of effective teaching and learning, assessment, professional development, collaborative activities, and continuous improvement efforts. The points assigned during the accreditation activities should guide and inform the brigade team as they complete the JPA Final Report. The points are not aligned directly with the JPA Final Report.

Scoring worksheets are provided for the following accreditation activities:

Appendix B-1. Battalion Staff Continuous Improvement Project Presentation

All JROTC program activities should be interrelated to the program's student learning outcomes; they are initiated, planned, led, executed, and documented by Cadets. The Battalion Staff Continuous Improvement Project is meant to guide where your Cadet Battalion goes, emphasizing what is important to Cadets. Cadets begin by reviewing JROTC program mission, vision, values, and outcomes and discuss how these relate to their Battalion. Following a review of data (unit report, Cadet feedback, and/or school initiatives) Battalion goals and desired outcomes are established and an action plan is developed and executed. The goals are continuously measured, documenting desired outcome accomplishment. The ability of the Cadets to do all this is not gained overnight and must be taught and mentored by the instructors. Mid-course changes may be needed to accomplish what Cadets set out to accomplish.

Successful implementation of this process documents that Cadets understand the processes of continuous improvement, problem solving, planning, goal setting and how to use them to guide the organization throughout the year. This is an outstanding leadership tool. JROTC leadership, education, and training are demonstrated in a real-life, project-based learning experience, and is clearly evidence of Standard 3: Teaching and Assessing for Learning that the institution's curriculum, instructional design, and assessment practices guide and ensure teacher effectiveness and student learning. Further explanation in Indicator 3.3 says, teachers engage students in their learning through instructional strategies that ensure achievement of learning expectations.

Directions: For this presentation the entire Battalion staff has identified an area that needs improvement and will deliver a presentation. Their plan for improvement will state the issue, how they developed a continuous improvement strategy, their implementation process, and continuous improvement results.

Cadet teams will gather data and complete research thereby demonstrating evidence of critical thinking, problem solving, and decision-making. Program instructors will provide Cadets a copy of Checklist A: Battalion Staff Continuous Improvement Checklist as criteria that they will be evaluated on. This checklist will serve as a self-assessment tool for Cadets. The Staff Battalion Continuous Improvement Rubric below will help guide you in evaluating their presentations. Using the rubric will also inform the JPA Report that you will complete and discuss with your instructors.

The following outlines the Continuous Improvement Process for Leadership:

Plan

1. At the start of a new school year, Cadet staff plans their activities for the year, assuring that each activity supports the JROTC mission, vision, program outcomes and their Battalion goals. If they are not addressing one of the program goals with an activity, they may need to plan something else or rethink the importance of the goal in the first place.

Do/Act

2. The Cadet Battalion Commander, assisted by the Battalion staff, begins by establishing a mission and vision for that school year. SMART goals are established based on unit data from years past. Desired outcomes or measures of success are established and each Cadet Battalion staff member is assigned as a project officer for each goal. This Cadet leader executes the plan for goal achievement, measures, and document progress. Cadets should do all the work of the planning, establish the funds or resources needed, finding volunteer Cadets to help setup, clean-up, publicize, execute the project, and send reports to their supervising instructor. When an activity is accomplished that supports a goal; the progress towards goal achievement and measures of success should be recorded and kept in a portfolio.
3. A monthly special staff meeting (a self-check-up) is conducted where each staff officer responsible for a goal, presents to the staff how the unit is doing in relation to accomplishing that goal. Depending on success or lack thereof on each goal, the staff discusses changes or corrections they may need to make to complete the organizational goal by year's end. This process, along with quantifying data, is also documented in a notebook or computer spreadsheet.

Evaluate

4. If the program desires to compete for any unit award, the Cadet project officers write and submit impact statements for each of their goals into the unit report. The instructor should allow the Cadet leadership to write these impact statements and then edit them before submitting the impacts as final.
5. The validation of the Continuous Improvement Process will be briefed to brigade personnel as part of the JROTC Program for Accreditation process.

Battalion Staff Continuous Improvement Project Presentation Rubric

There are 35 points possible for this presentation. Use the rubric below to evaluate Battalion Staff presentations. This briefing should include presentations by all staff and will include:

1. Overview of the purpose of the Continuous Improvement project.
2. Introduction of all Cadet Staff and their role in this project.
3. Details of the problem, improvement plan, implementation, evaluation, and reflection.
4. Conclusion of the presentation should include a plan for next steps in continuous improvement.

If necessary, use the Guiding Questions to expand on the criteria. Discuss the overall evaluation score of the presentation with the JROTC instructor and suggest areas for improvement.

Appendix B-2. Service Learning Project Presentation

The JROTC AdvancED Standards for Accreditation notes in Standard 3: Teaching and Assessing for Learning that the institution's curriculum, instructional design, and assessment practices guide and ensure teacher effectiveness and student learning. Further explanation in Indicator 3.3 says, teachers engage students in their learning through instructional strategies that ensure achievement of learning expectations. A key evidence for this accreditation standard is Service Learning.

A lesson required at every LET level is Service Learning (U3C8L1-3). JROTC programs, and often many high schools, suggest that students volunteer a specific number of hours to community service, with the outcome of serving others as citizens in their own community. Service Learning is a little different. JROTC requires that 'service' within the community be taken up a step by requiring all Cadets to participate in a Service Learning Project.

Service learning brings academics to life and is driven by student involvement. Together Cadets should identify essential needs in your school or community and then decide on their own projects. In addition, they should plan and carry out their own projects and take responsibility for their own learning. Reflecting on the experience will reveal the importance of service work and the impact it is making on others, including each Cadet.

Directions: There are three distinct Service Learning lessons in the JROTC curriculum. Each focuses on a different aspect of service learning – planning and preparation, implementation, and evaluation. The checklist/rubric below divides the criteria you will be evaluating into three parts. A minimum of three Cadets will brief the presentation. These Cadets will not be from the Battalion staff, but should represent their role in service learning as a LET 1, 2, 3, or 4 Cadet.

When a Cadet unit or LET class presents a Service Learning Brief it becomes evident that curriculum is being taught and integrated into their project. For this presentation, the Cadet team members (LET 1, 2, 3 or 4) will explain their service learning goal, planning strategies, preparation, and implementation of the project. As well, they will discuss the overall success of the project and provide team/personal reflection on service learning.

Checklist B: Service Learning Project Presentation Checklist uses the same criteria provided in the rubric below. Cadets should be provided this document to prepare their presentations.

Use the rubric below to evaluate the content of the Cadets' presentation. Notes you take during this presentation will help inform the JPA Report that you will complete and discuss with your instructors.

Service Learning Project Presentation Rubric

Determine whether the Service Learning criteria addressed are proficient, emerging, or unsatisfactory as each of the three sections of the brief are presented. There are 20 points possible for this presentation. Some criteria address Cadet presentation and delivery. Use the guiding questions to assist you in a post-briefing interview with Cadets. Encourage Cadets by providing feedback on their presentation style and delivery. Discuss the overall evaluation score of the presentation with the instructors and suggest areas Cadets can improve.

Appendix B-3. Cadet Portfolio and Interview Guide

The JROTC Program Accreditation Standard 3: Teaching and Assessing of Learning notes that the institution's curriculum, instructional design, and assessment practices guide and ensure teacher effectiveness and student learning. Cadet portfolios and interviews help to provide evidence that teaching and learning is occurring within the program.

The Cadet Portfolio is one of the most authentic forms of assessment within the JROTC Program, and is a requirement outlined in the Cadet Command Regulation 145-2. They are required and maintained by all Cadets enrolled in JROTC. Each Cadet creates a portfolio that contains an organized collection of work based on accomplishments, personality, goals, and aspirations. They show evidence of problem-solving, decision-making, critical thinking and leadership. Portfolios should provide insight and information on the Cadet's personal achievements and growth over time and serve as a guide for the Cadet interview during a JROTC Program Accreditation review. Instructors should provide a copy of Checklist C: Cadet Portfolio Checklist to Cadets prior to the JPA visit. The checklist provides a list of criteria that they will be evaluated on.

Scoring: In order to observe a good sampling of Cadet portfolios, it is recommended to randomly select 10 portfolios from the unit. A recommended sequence is to observe three LET 1, three LET 2, two LET 3, and two LET 4 portfolios. Consider the guiding questions below to keep the dialogue focused on what the Cadet has learned and how s/he has applied it.

Each portfolio accounts for 20 points. Average the scores and provide one score on the JPA School Visit Point Summary Scoring Worksheet. Make as many copies of the Cadet Portfolio and Interview Guide as needed to appropriately score each portfolio you review.

The criteria listed below outlines items that should be found in a JROTC Cadet Portfolio. Each criterion is worth two points, unless noted otherwise.

LET 1 and 2 Portfolio and Interview Guide
Criteria	Points 1 point for item & 1 point for each answer

Appendix B-5. In-Ranks

1. General.

- a. All Cadets present for the JPA visit will participate in In-Ranks. In-Ranks will be Cadet led and in accordance with the instructions in this appendix and CCR 145-2.
- b. Personal appearance and grooming should meet or exceed established unit standards. At a minimum, hair (both male and female) will be well groomed, and must not extend below the uniform collar. Hairstyles will be such that the appropriate headgear can be properly worn.
- c. During the In-Ranks, the uniform will be Class A or B or distinctive uniform for Military Institute units. Brigade must approve the type of uniform worn during the JPA. Other uniforms like drill, color guard or any other uniform is unauthorized during the In-Ranks. Uniforms must be clean, pressed, and in good repair. Insignias, metal accoutrements and accessories, authorized by CCR 145-2 are the only awards that may be worn on the uniform during the JPA. All awards and decorations must be properly placed on the Class A and Class B uniforms; brass and shoes/boots should be cleaned and shined IAW CCR 145-2. Cadets must wear headgear for the In-Ranks.
- d. Cadets not wearing a uniform will be assessed six (6) uniform deficiencies, unless there is a valid reason for not wearing the uniform; i.e., newly enrolled cadets, cadets who have grown out of their uniforms or damaged their uniforms. Instructor must prove uniforms are on order.
- e. Cadets are expected to answer graded questions.

2. Examples.

- a. Possible (Number of cadets inspected times 6) minus total deficiencies divided by possible times 80:

Example: 88 cadets inspected

23 deficiencies

$$88 \times 6 = 528 \quad 528 - 23 = 505$$

$$505 / 528 = .956 \times 80 = 76.48 \text{ points}$$

- b. Possible (Number of cadets questioned times 3) minus total incorrect answers by possible times 20:

Example: 88 cadets questioned

23 incorrect answers

$$88 \times 3 = 264 \quad 264 - 23 = 241$$

$$241 / 264 = .912 \times 20 = 18.24 \text{ points}$$

Appendix B-9. JROTC Instructor Portfolio and Interview Guide

The JROTC Standards of Accreditation Standard 3: Teaching and Assessing for Learning says the institution's curriculum, instructional design, and assessment practices guide and ensure teacher effectiveness and student learning. While this standard is the most critical for instructors, there are other standards that instructors impact as well. The items in the instructor portfolio provide evidence to support participation in continuous improvement efforts, use of data to inform changes and collaboration. This form helps to provide examples of that evidence.

Instructors must participate in their own growth and professional development, in an effort toward becoming the best instructor they can be. When instructors value life-long learning, it can translate to the classroom experience. Cadets can pick up their enthusiasm and passion for education and ultimately affect the Army JROTC mission “to motivate young people to be better citizens.”

The criteria below can be used as you interview your instructors during a JPA visit. Each instructor portfolio will be evaluated separately; the total score for this section of the JPA will not be an average of portfolio scores. High and low portfolio scores can positively or negatively impact a total JPA score. Portfolio scores that are below the minimum will be re-evaluated by the brigade staff within one year of the JPA. This allows an instructor time to improve upon their effectiveness and professional development.

IF an instructor scores the maximum points in every category, they could achieve 32 points. However, the maximum points that can be entered on the JPA School Visit Point Summary Worksheet for this section is 30 points. No more than 30 points per instructor may be entered on Appendix B-10, JPA School Visit Point Summary Worksheet.

For JPA purposes, a new instructor is defined as an SAI or AI with less than three years experience. Each instructor portfolio will be evaluated, including new instructors. However, the points for new instructors' portfolios will not be used to compute the percentage for the unit's overall score. To compute the percentage for the unit's overall score, use the formula in Appendix B-10, JPA School Visit Point Summary Worksheet. On the JPA Final Report, brigade personnel should indicate a course of action for new instructors to improve their portfolio score.

Ensure JROTC instructors have a copy of Checklist D: Instructor Portfolio and Interview to use as a guide for assembling their portfolio. Use these same criteria during your evaluation and provide feedback to your instructor by commending them for outstanding performance and professional development or helping them think through some short- and long-term goals toward a continuous improvement action plan.

Due to time constraints during a JPA visit, suggest that your instructors provide printed or electronic copies of their artifacts to the brigade staff prior to the brigade staff arrival for a JPA.

The following formula will be used to compute the unit's overall percent score:

$$\frac{(\text{cadet points awarded} \times \text{weight factor}) + \text{instructor points awarded}}{(\text{max points possible for cadets} \times \text{weight factor}) + \text{max points possible for all instructors}}$$

The weight factor used in the formula is based on the number of instructors assigned to the unit, refer to Table B-7. Ensure to use the same weight factor in the numerator and denominator. Max points possible for cadets = 140. Max points possible for instructors = 30 x number of instructors.

** In the event the minimum score is not attained for an accreditation activity, brigade personnel should indicate improvement actions for that activity within the JPA Final Report.

Appendix B-11. JROTC Program for Accreditation Report

Brigade: _____ School: _____ Date: _____

The JROTC Program for Accreditation Report or JPA Report provides a recap of evidence gathered throughout the JPA visit. This is the final report that captures both evaluative evidence and continuous improvement action plans for the unit and instructors to address between this visit and the next.

The Report is laid out by AdvancED standards that are reviewed during the Accreditation visit, as well as additional information that may be gathered through other means (e.g. JUMS and JCIMS information/reports). As each standard is addressed, the Brigade staff member should determine whether the evidence indicates that the standard should be scored as Distinguished, Proficient, Emerging, and Needs Improvement. While the numerical scores from the JPA School Visit Point Summary Worksheet do not align exactly to the Standards scoring, they should provide a guideline.

Additionally, under each standard heading, there is information indicating what evidence would be useful to use to support your score, as well as where the information is located. To assist you with your cross-reference of evidence, consider adding a check in each type of evidence you saw or evaluated. As you refer to the evidence, add notes to the column provided. Then, determine which level of performance they have met.

Finally, each standard includes an area for actions. This information indicates what actions that the unit, instructor, Brigade, or JROTC Cadet Command will undertake during the time between the current and next visit, to improve the quality of that particular standard.

An electronic copy of the completed JPA Report will be kept for your follow-up records, and then sent to the instructor, school, and Cadet Command.

AdvancED Standard 1: Purpose and Direction

The institution maintains and communicates a purpose and direction that commit to high expectations for learning as well as shared values and beliefs about teaching and learning.

Checklists

Checklist A. Battalion Staff Continuous Improvement Project Presentation Checklist

As Battalion staff you have obligations and duties as leaders to help your school's JROTC program run smoothly. Many of these duties are part of the Cadet Command regulations. But, beyond that what kinds of goals do you have as a staff for your unit? Are you looking at ways and means to continuously improve your Battalion?

Perhaps you've worked with the principal of your school about a mentoring or tutoring program to help increase test scores. Maybe you'd like to help Cadets in your unit become more active in community service or service learning projects. What goals has your staff set for the academic school year? What benchmarks have you developed to check the goal and make changes as needed to accomplish it?

Throughout the JROTC curriculum are lesson topics that focus on improvement. Most pertain to personal improvement, but the principles and concepts of goal setting, personal success, and leadership development can be enhanced as you look at unit or battalion improvement initiatives.

If your staff has not already considered a unit goal for this school year, take a peek at some lessons within the curriculum that may spur you on toward developing a continuous improvement plan with checkpoints along the way. Begin your effort by taking a look at the learning plan and activities for U3C10L2: Goals and Goal Setting which requires the development of a goals action plan.

As part of the JROTC program evaluation, you are to prepare a briefing about your Battalion goals and continuous improvement plan. Use the Plan, Do, Act, Evaluate guide and checklist below to assist you and your team on this project.

Plan

1. At the start of a new school year, your Cadet staff plans their activities for the year, assuring that each activity supports the JROTC mission, vision, program outcomes, and your Battalion goals.

Do/Act

2. The Battalion Commander, assisted by the Battalion staff and staff begins by establishing a mission and vision for that school year. SMART goals are established based on unit data from years past. Desired outcomes or measures of success are established and Cadet Battalion staff members are assigned as project officers for each goal. Each Cadet leader executes the plan for goal achievement, and measures and documents progress. Cadets do all the work of the planning, establish the funds or resources needed, finding volunteer Cadets setup, execute, clean-up, prepare publicity, and report to supervising instructor. When an activity is met that supports a goal, progress towards goal achievement and record measures of success are kept in a portfolio.
3. A monthly special staff meeting (a self-check-up) is conducted, where each staff officer responsible for a goal presents to the staff how the unit is doing in relation to accomplishing their goal. Depending on success or failure of each goal, the staff discusses the need for change or correction to the year-end accomplishment. This process, along with quantifying data, is documented in a notebook or computer spreadsheet.

Evaluate

4. If the program desires to compete for any type of unit award, the Cadet project's officers write and submit impact statements for each of their goals into a unit report. Cadet leadership writes and edits the impact statements before submitting them as final.

5. The validation of the Continuous Improvement process will be briefed to brigade personnel as part of the JROTC Program for Accreditation process. The checklist below provides criteria to help guide your project development.

Checklist B. Service Learning Project Presentation Checklist

Directions: A lesson required at every LET level is Service Learning (U3C8L1-3). JROTC programs, and often many high schools, suggest that students volunteer a specific number of hours to community service, with the outcome of serving others as citizens in their own community. Service Learning is a little different. JROTC requires that ‘service’ within the community be enhanced by requiring all Cadets to participate in a Service Learning Project.

Service learning brings academics to life and is driven by student involvement. Together with fellow Cadets you should identify essential needs in your school or community and then decide on your own projects. In addition, you should plan and carry out your own projects and take responsibility for your own learning. Reflecting on the experience will reveal the importance of service work and the impact it is making on others, including each participating Cadet.

Every three years, a brigade staff team will evaluate your school’s JROTC program. Part of that evaluation includes a review of student learning and assessment. To showcase your unit or class’s service learning project (previous year or current, depending on time of evaluation), you and other members of your presentation team will deliver a service learning presentation. Consider including members from all LET areas within the unit. Focus on the goal, the plan, the preparation, and implementation of your project. As well, discuss the overall success of the project and team/personal reflection on service learning.

Use the criteria below as a guide for the presentation.

Checklist D. JROTC Instructor Portfolio and Interview Guide

Overview: The JROTC Standards of Accreditation Standard 3: Teaching and Assessing for Learning says the institution's curriculum, instructional design, and assessment practices guide and ensure teacher effectiveness and student learning. While this standard is the most critical for instructors, there are other standards that instructors impact as well. The items in the instructor portfolio provide evidence to support participation in continuous improvement efforts, use of data to inform changes and collaboration. This form helps to provide examples of that evidence.

As an instructor you must participate in your own growth and professional development, in an effort toward becoming the best instructor you can be. When you value life-long learning, it can translate to the classroom experience. Cadets can pick up on your enthusiasm and passion for education and ultimately affect the Army JROTC mission “to motivate young people to be better citizens.”

The outline below can be used a guide for the types of items you may want to showcase in your JROTC Instructor Portfolio. The portfolio can be electronic or hard copy, so please be sure to provide access to a copy should the JPA staff prefer to evaluate your portfolio off campus. If this is the case, brigade staff will provide feedback to you within two weeks of your school visit.
